MADE ON MAUI

Created by Artist Jennifer J Stephens, Artful Scents is about gifting a little bit of ALOHA while incorporating a beautiful piece of art. Raised on the island of Maui, Jennifer works out of her studio in Kihei creating mixed media collage and assemblage art where she resides with her husband and assorted critters.

In 2007, Jennifer opened her graphic design studio Unique Art Hawaii, in 2012 she founded CRE8 Magazine, a publication devoted to art & creativity, and most recently in 2017 she started blending all of these creative endeavors to establish Artful Scents.

Each candle is hand-poured in small batches using 100% soy wax for an eco-friendly, clean burn. Every tin is labeled with a different piece of Jennifer's artwork, designed in-house for a truly unique look. Our tins are reusable making us eco-friendly, biodegradable and sustainable. All of our products are handmade with Aloha in Kihei, Maui, Hawaii. We hope you enjoy them as much as we enjoy making them!

Each month we donate a portion of our proceeds to non-profits and charities close to our heart. Mahalo for helping us give back to our community!

COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

100% Soy Wax | Phthalate-Free | Lead-Free Cotton Wicks

We use only 100% all-natural soy wax because it is non-toxic and burns cleaner than paraffin. Soy emits no toxic petrol-carbon soot. Soy candles also burn about 30% to 50% longer than paraffin, or about 6-8 hours per ounce. The advantages of Soy Candles are clear - no black soot, a longer burn, and a natural product produced by American farmers. We use only premium phthalate-free, non-toxic, skin-safe fine fragrance oils which are infused with essential oils and 100% pure cotton wicks. No additives, dyes, preservatives, or petroleum.
